

Homework 12

Due Wednesday, October 26 at 11am (in class)

1. On p. 213, EMG discuss the complex interrelationships between sex, race, and class in the United States. Think of another example, either from the media, your own experience, or another class, that bears on this relationship. What does this example say about how 'background knowledge' about sex, race, and class structured in the U.S.?
