

Research Assistant Application

Thank you for applying for a position on Dr. Courtney Ahrens' research team. Please complete the form below, save it to your computer, and then email it to Dr. Courtney Ahrens at courtney.ahrens@csulb.edu. Applications will be evaluated based on the quality of the responses, and a select set of applicants will be invited to participate in individual interviews with Dr. Courtney Ahrens. Those accepted into the research team will be invited to join the team Journal Club that meets once a week on Fridays from 9:30-10:30am. Students who perform well in the Journal Club may then be invited to become a trainee and go on to become a research assistant (see attached compact for more information about the structure of the lab). Only those students who rise to the level of research assistant may call themselves research assistants.
